We must not forget that the primary election is right here and lets all go out to the polls Monday and vote for the man we want; don't stand back and say I won't vote in the primary, "it ain't right" but walk out democrats and choose your man.

Politics are not very exciting, but when the old gray men get together you can hear them whispering, "boys, go for Stone for congress." We have just two Keys men in the Darnall precinct that we know of, and one of them gets sick occasionally. He was on his way home one day last week from a neighbor's house and thought he heard Keys coming down the road; when he ran to meet him he came to the fence and fell over head first and skinned his head; he now says, "D—Keys."

"I would like to sound the praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla over the entire universe," writes Mrs. Longenecker, of Union Deposit, Penn.

MURRAY. In the first place we want to say sincerely, hurrah for Cleveland and Stevenson, Capt. Stone and the Benton Tribune; and we do not mean any buncombe or stuff when we say the Tribune is making a gallant, brave, and good fight for democracy, and we only wish some of our other district papers would talk right out along this line.

The ratification, flag-raising, jubilee, or whatever you are a mind to call it, here last Saturday passed off exceedingly pleasant to the democrats assembled, but from expressions heard whispered it was not very heartily relished by the brethren of the republican, third and fourth parties. Hon. Jas. B. Garnett, of Trigg, made the first speech—and it was a good one—followed by Capt. Miller and others, all full of good democratic gospel. A number of friends from neighboring towns were present and enjoyed the feast of good things said by the democracy.

We are glad to see a number of the brethren who side-tracked on the independent line last year, coming back to their own true love, the good old democratic fold. Welcome, brethren, all is forgiven.

About the gauziest thing we have heard is the charge brought by some of Capt. Stone's enemies that he slipped off and went back to Washington because he was afraid to meet his opponents in the canvass. Verily the campaign liar is already afraid. The idea is too ridiculous to be suggested by even Joe Bently Brown, of the fourth party. But Capt. Stone is now in the district and will show these fellows a thing or two between now and the primary.

A full grown man of mature years—and a bald head—who does not know the difference between a national bank and a little county bank of deposit, who cannot distinguish between a bank president and a bank cashier; a man whose little farm is over-run with sassafras bushes, briars and brambles, and a man who knows more about his neighbor's business than he does of his own; a man who is endowed with a mentality that runs to riot and revolution, and whose financial standing is below zero, is surely a fit leader for a great national (?) party.

The county candidates are bustling in the brush now. The primary is less than two weeks off when some of the good fellows will be laid aside for future services, but those left on the track will be able to down the republican-third party fusionists, etc., to a nicety.

Some of our people do not take very kindly to judge Grace's candidacy, being a little sore over the re-districting job put up by the over-the-river boy.

Capital Capers. A goodly crowd of democratic senators and representatives will go over to New York to be present at the big demonstration which is to accompany the formal notifying of Cleveland and Stevenson of their nomination.

Col. Oates, chairman of the house committee which went to Homestead to investigate the labor trouble at the Carnegie works, says the committee will make a report the latter part of this week of their visit to Homestead. It is not positively known what the nature of that report will be, but it is believed that the committee will take the ground that the strike of Carnegie's men is not a matter for congressional interference, and that it will ask for authority to continue the investigation of the Pinkerton detective system during the recess.

Public opinion has upset one of the corrupt bargains by which John C. New secured the nomination of Mr. Harrison at Minneapolis. The nomination of the negro William D. Crum, to be postmaster at Charleston, South Carolina, which he practically admitted to after Crum's statement and those of other and more reputable witnesses they would not vote for his confirmation. The South Carolina delegation in congress did good work in bringing out the facts in this disgraceful barter and sale of such an important federal office, and not a few republican senators were glad of the exposure, although they did not care to make it themselves.

Only three appropriation bills now remain to be finally acted upon, and unless the numerous and costly senate amendments to the sundry civil bill shall bring about a dead lock, congress will adjourn within two weeks. If this bill were disposed of, it might easily adjourn this week.

Senator Harris, of Tennessee, usually the mildest of men, lost his temper Saturday and called Senator Sanders of Montana, a blank scoundrel, because of an obstructive amendment the latter offered to a local bill which was in charge of the former. Later there was an apology and the bad language will not appear in the record.

A republican senator who went to see Mr. Harrison in the interest of one of his constituents who he thinks ought to have that vacancy on the supreme court, told a friend that he was satisfied that it was the president's intention to keep the place open until after the election and then to give it to Attorney-General Miller.

"Tired All the Time." Is the complaint of many poor mortals, who know not where to find relief. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses just those elements of strength which you so earnestly crave, it will build you up, give you an appetite, strengthen your stomach and nerves. Try it.

Hood's pills act especially upon the liver, rousing it from torpidity to its natural duties, cure constipation and assist digestion.

A Drunkard's Home. The diabolism of rum-selling is best known by the wife of the drunkard. We may try and sympathize with the poor, wretched woman who sees her once loving husband, whose fond smile and manly form were the joy and gladness of her life, now a bloated, maulin fool and raving maniac; coming, with oaths and curses, into what is left of a desolate home, recklessly using his hands, or whatever comes within his grasp, to wreak his vile passions on the poor woman and the helpless children who crouch beneath his blows.

This is a kind of wretchedness that can only be known or fully realized by actual experience. It is no uncommon thing that happens in some remote section of the country, to be told as a legend of crime or human infirmity, but it is an every-day occurrence in a number of wretched households all over the land; and yet this diabolism, this awful misery, is brought about and fostered by open dens of perdition called saloons;—of which there are over ten thousand in the city of New York, dealing out their poisonous liquide called beer, whiskey, brandy, etc., to gratify the perverted and depraved appetites of not less than one hundred thousand human beings.—From "The Scourge of Rum-Selling," in Demorest's Family Magazine for August.

One of the prominent causes of discontent and misrepresentation by our public men arises from the fact that our people are never satisfied with "doing well," but want to make an attempt to do better, and in doing so many mistakes are often made and good men are turned out and worse ones put in.

vecated the nomination of Mr. Hendrick or Mr. Campbell or Mr. Robertson public criticisms would now be as few as they are against Mr. Stone from any of them. We have nothing harsh or bad to say against any candidate on the track, and with this issue ends our remarks for and against any of them. We have done what we believed to be our duty.

DUTY NEXT MONDAY.
It is the duty of every democrat in the county to go to the primary election next Monday and vote for some one. There never was a time that a vote from a democrat will speak louder than now. There are at least 1,000 democratic voters who prefer the success of the party, and why not go out Monday and show the republicans and third party people the force of your convictions? Duty is something every man owes, and he of course owes it to the party of principles in which he believes, as much as to anything else, and he should never fail to perform it. At this particular juncture no man can better perform his duty than to vote to select some good man to bear the standard of the time-honored principles of the democratic party. To the boys in the trenches we would urge to be up and doing and not one stay away next Monday from voting. Duty calls you, and you should go.

THAT FREEZING COMMITTEE
The freezing committee is at it again. This time our friend Bob Fields is the sufferer, as will be seen by a withdrawal card in the last week's Tribune. Bob's days as a candidate were few and full of trouble. He began the race for sheriff buoyant and full of hope as an independent candidate with much encouragement by men of all parties, but alas! Mr. Jones came out as a candidate for the same office and on the same ticket, the former formerly a republican and the latter formerly a democrat, but now a third party man. The "freezers" soon saw it would never do to let two independents run and divide up the vote, so they set about to know on whom to put their icy fingers. They surveyed the field, and knowing that a republican could not catch men in the third party as well as one that had formerly been a democrat, they concluded to turn their "freezer" upon Bob and so chill him as to cause him to go home and quit the race, which he did, and Bob stays at home free from the wiles of politics. Mr. Jones yet is on the track and we presume will be until Cleveland is elected. Oh! how fatal is an attack from the freezing committee.

We are made out of the stuff that when a man makes a true and faithful officer we have the courage to say so. We have the courage to say that, unless a public officer attends to the duties of his office as faithfully as we do to our business, he is not the kind of a man we like. We want to take occasion now and right here to say that Sam Crossland is the kind of a public servant we admire. He will soon have served six years as commonwealth's attorney and to this date has never missed a single court at any place in the district. Who can beat it? No man can beat it. Yes, and he has been honest; never having wavered to the right or left, but all the time doing his duty without fear or favor. The time has come in the history of this country that a man must attend to his duty and be faithful. There are some people so nice that they can't give a man credit for faithfulness. The first district never had two men more faithful than W. J. Stone and Sam Crossland.

It is rumored that Judge Robertson will not be in the race for congress twenty-four hours from this date. It has been said for some time that every effort would be made to beat Capt. Stone right on the eve of the primary election. We hope his friends will not be carried away by any reports that may be circulated, but stand firm and show his opposers by what a majority he can be nominated.

Some of the men who are loudest against Mr. Stone, claiming that he has been in congress long enough, are men who have held office longer than he, but when the argument is brought home to them, they then claim the cases are not similar. Since that is good for the goose is good for the gander.

THE "BIG FOUR."

The Candidates for Congress at the Court House Last Saturday.

ROBERTSON "NOT IN IT."

Last Saturday was Capt. Stone's appointment at this place to address the people of this county, touching his candidacy for the democratic nomination for congress, but Mr. Hendrick and Campbell were present to divide time with him, which was generously done by the "clever congressman." There was a crowd of about 200 persons present to hear the speaking.

Mr. Hendrick made the first speech of one hour, only touching the politics of the day. His speech was a good democratic speech well delivered and it was well received by his hearers. On the tariff his speech was able and lucid, but when he came to expose the platform of the third party his exposition was masterly and crushing. On that part that referred to the buying and owning of railroads he simply did not leave one stone of their feeble structure standing. His remarks were all on national politics save a feeble complaint at the newspapers for taking part in the canvass; however he made no complaint at the Clinton Democrat for advocating his claims. He, to the surprise of every one present, made no allusion to the record of Capt. Stone. There were many persons here who had come a long distance, to hear him expose the "rotten record" of Bill Stone, but alas! not a word did he say concerning it, but he apologized for what he said to the effect that Capt. Stone had returned to Washington without receiving a telegram, but not one thing could he say against the good record of Congressman Stone. In all honesty and in all fairness it does seem that only one week before the nomination that such a man as Hendrick might find some flaw in the eight year's record of Capt. Stone, but he cannot—a record that every man in the district should feel exceedingly proud of. Mr. Hendrick was called to time by Mr. Campbell, after which Capt. Stone, amid a round of cheers, came to the stand and addressed the people. He was very hoarse and not able to speak, but the people were so anxious to hear him that he spoke for about one hour in his usual able and dignified manner. He referred to the isms that were in the canvass before he came, and how they had vanished since his return, and how he had been misrepresented in his absence, but now since he was present all was calm and serene. He showed how he had always voted on the side of the people, and against every class of extravagance, and more especially against the obnoxious pension laws, and that he was always to be found at his post in the service of his country. He said he had a record, and upon that he proposed to stand or fall, and he dared any man to tackle it, but there was no one present who was willing to touch it.

After Mr. Stone ceased his speech, Judge Campbell came upon the stand and in a spirit of irony told the people how the newspapers had acted, and then indulged in wit and humor, until the house was kept in laughter nearly all the time he was on the stand. The judge's speech took very well and he pleased his hearers very much, but he too had nothing to say about the record of Capt. Stone.

Judge Robertson was not present, nor did anyone offer any excuse for his absence. After the speaking the candidates left for Paducah where they were to speak at night, but from some cause they did not speak. They all made good speeches and they all had a following.

Mr. Van Pelt, editor of the Craig Mo. Meteor, went to a drug store at Hillsdale, Iowa, and asked the physician in attendance to give him a dose of something for cholera morbus and looseness of the bowels. He says: "I felt so much better the next morning that I concluded to call on the physician and get him to fix me a supply of the medicine. I was surprised when he handed me a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. He said he prescribed it regularly in his practice and found it the best he could get or prepare. I can testify to its efficiency in my case at all events." For sale by R. H. Starks.

Eight years in congress and not a criticism against his record—such is the record of Mr. Stone. A carpenter by the name of M. S. Powers fell from the roof of a house in East Des Moines, Iowa, and sustained a painful and serious

Henry Burnett for Circuit Judge. The announcement of the above named gentleman will be found in the Tribune this week, as a candidate for the office of circuit judge. Mr. Burnett was born in Trigg county in 1849, and is a son of the illustrious Henry Burnett who electrified this district with his powerful eloquence in days of Lynn Boyd and in 1856. He has been practicing law ever since he came to Paducah, which was 22 years ago. He has been a close law student, and is to-day a very profound lawyer; one who is in the prime of life; young, vigorous and capable, and if he is elected to this important office, the people of the Second judicial district will find in him an able, rapid and profound judicial officer. He has never been a place hunter, but always from the day of his birth a democrat and declares himself a candidate subject to the will of his party. He has entered the canvass to win and will go among the people in order that he may get acquainted with them and they with him. We commend him to the consideration of the people of Marshall county.

Cholera infantum has lost its terrors since the introduction of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. When that remedy is used and the treatment as directed with each bottle is followed, a cure is certain. Mr. A. W. Walters, a prominent merchant at Waltersburg, Ill., says: "It cured my baby boy of cholera infantum after several other remedies had failed. The child was so low that he seemed almost beyond the aid of human hands or reach of any medicine." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by R. H. Starks.

A Big Job.
Judge Dupriest has a big job on hand now, and he is in trouble up to the arm pits. Between now and when his court closes Monday he is required by the new law to divide the magisterial districts into voting precincts. The law requires that no voting precinct shall contain more than 350 voters nor less than 300 if practical. There will be no changes on this side of the river, but in the Bishop's district there will likely be only one voting place, two in the

If dull, spiritless and stupid; if your appetite is capricious and uncertain, you need a sarsaparilla. For best results take De Witt's Barry & Stephens.

W R Nimmo came over Saturday to hear the candidates for congress speak. Mr Nimmo and his two boys will vote in the democratic primary this year.

We truly believe De Witt's Little Early Risers to be the most natural, most effective, most prompt and economical pill for biliousness, indigestion and inactive liver. Barry & Stephens.

Bassie Johnston is in the city mixing among his old friends, and by the way he is an advocate of the claims of Mr Burnett for circuit judge and Mr Hendrick for congress.

It is a truth in medicine that the smallest dose that performs the cure is the best. De Witt's Little Early Risers are the smallest pills, will perform the cure and are the best. Barry & Stephens.

Jessie L Copeland is now a happy mail carrier on the star route from here to Arnettville. He makes 104 trips for which the government pays him $50.00. His remuneration is less than 50 cents per trip a distance of four miles.

Try BLACK-DRAUGHT tea for Dyspepsia. A lady, whose hair came out with every combing, was induced to give Ayer's Hair Vigor a faithful trial. She did so, and not only was the loss of hair checked, but a new and vigorous growth soon succeeded that which had gone.

Dick Austen was in town last week and in a conversation with him he said he had the finest fish pond in the world; that there were fish in it that would weigh at least 500 pounds and that he had been offered $10,000 for it.

"Late to bed and early to rise will shorten the road to your home in the skies." But early to bed and a "Little Early Riser," the pill that makes life longer and better and wiser. Barry & Stephens.

The primary election will be open at 8 o'clock in the morning and close at 5 o'clock in the evening. The officers should see to it that the order calling it should be carried out to the letter. Remember nine hours is all the time allowed this year to hold the primary election.

Several of our citizens went to Murray Monday to hear the candidates for congress speak, which was their last appointment west of the river. All returned enthusiastic, each faction claiming that their man would carry Calloway county. The candidates spoke yesterday at Eddyville to day at Princeton tomorrow at Marion.

MAYFIELD, Ky., Jan. 30, 1888. DEAR SIR—Some four or five years ago I had quite a severe case of acute rheumatism. I used your Rheumatic Liniment freely and obtained permanent relief in a few hours. I believe it superior to any other. Respectfully, W E COVINGTON.

Mr James Warnick and his wife, of Taylor county, Texas, were the guests of Sheriff Little last Friday while on their way to relatives in West Tennessee. They left Texas May 5th, and will spend the summer with friends in West Kentucky and Tennessee. They are hale and hearty and met a hearty welcome.

There was a family reunion at the residence of Mr Jesse Darnall last Sunday at which there were 62 persons present, 52 of whom were relatives. Eight brothers-in-law and their families were present one of whom was the editor of the Tribune. To say that a good dinner was abundantly served would only half express it. Plenty to eat in large quantities was served to all present, besides the generous hospitalities of Mr and Mrs Darnall cannot be expelld by anybody.

Mr Phil Darnall and his aged wife, the father and mother of the host, were present to enjoy the kind hostilities of his son, while Mrs Thompson, the mother of the hostess, was present to partake of the dinner and enjoy the pleasures of the occasion. The day was enjoyed by every one present; and we must not forget to mention Miss Emma and Miss Lucy Darnall, two beautiful young women who assisted their mother in looking after the care and comfort of her invited guests.

McKENZIE, TENN., Oct. 28, 1885. G. R. C. & C. C. MAN'G. CO. Gentlemen—I have used your medicine for a throat trouble called "tonsillitis," and I think have received considerable benefit. I have been engaged almost all the time, day and night, in revival meetings since the first week in June last. Have had no soreness or swelling of the tonsils until last week. I took cold one of those cold nights, and have had some soreness of throat since. I have gone through my summer and fall meeting with great ease than has been common with me for 17 years. I have found the medicine very good for coughs and colds in my family. Altogether we have used 8 or 10 bottles. I don't want to be without it.

Yours very truly, REV. JOHN H. WITT. Pastor Gleason circuit, Memphis Conference M. E. church south. I

Mr Lum Fields and family will again become citizens of our town. Mr Fields has several contracts here for building houses which will engage his time and attention until nearly Christmas, and in order that his family may be with him they will move here. They are clever people and our people will give them a welcome return.

If your appetite is gone nothing will restore it more quickly than "C. C. C. Certain Chill Cure," the great Tonic and guaranteed Cure for Chills and Fever. Price 50 cents.

Joseph Pace is now subcontractor on the mail route from Paducah to Benton. He makes 313 trips from Paducah to Sharpe and return for which he receives $340. James Salyer & Bro makes the same number of trips from Benton to Sharpe and return for $300. This is a cheap price for carrying the mail on so big a route.

As much as some people have to say about Judge Dupriest we are led to believe he is made of the true metal. What man in the county can lay aside all prejudice and personal considerations and appoint his opponent to an important position as one of the county re-districting commissioners as he did Mr Thos F Harrison. We say very few men would do so.

Mrs Martha Dowdy, wife of Mr Jasper Dowdy, who lives two or three miles south of town, is thought to be insane. The county judge and county attorney have gone out to her home this morning to try her for lunacy. She is the mother of several children and she and her husband have the sympathy of the community.

"C. C. C. Certain Chill Cure" is not the best remedy you have ever used for Chills and Fever. Pleasant to take. Large bottles 50 cents.

Col. Turner's Card. The card or dying will of Col. Oscar Turner, in the Courier Journal, is at present very much out of place and contains many assertions that the people of this district are not exactly ready to believe. In 1 blindfold, and then began a terrible battle, in which the girl finally came out victor and rode the horse at will wherever she pleased.—Ma betee (Tex) cor. Philadelphia Press.

BEN D. BELL,
Druggist of Lexington, Ky., says that Dr. Hale's Household remedies (consisting of Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure, Dr. Hale's Household Ointment, and Dr. Hale's Household Tea) are the best sellers he has ever had in his store. This is owing to the great merit of these popular remedies. They invariably give great satisfaction, save many doctors' bills and work wonderful cures. Everybody should use them. 25 and 50c sizes at Lemon's.

All Guns Are Loaded.
Always carry your gun with the muzzle upwards. Never climb a fence with the hammer up or uncocked. Treat every gun as though it were loaded and cocked, and do not be such a fool as to point it at anything you do not want to kill. If some fellow knocks you down for snapping an empty barrel in his face, rise up and thank him.—Cor. Republic.

Guaranteed Cure.
We authorize our advertise druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottle free, Large size 50c and $1.00 at J. R. Lemon.

There are no telegraph poles in China. Not because there are no telegraph lines, nor yet because there is not wood suitable for use as poles. Strangely enough the reason is purely religious. The Chinese worship their dead fathers and grandfathers and regard the resting places of their remains "as so sacred that they deem it a sacrilege to allow a shadow to be cast upon their graves. When the line-men of the first Chinese telegraph companies began operations they were greatly embarrassed in their operations by crowds of inhabitants who following them about and, with the most frightful blasphemies, cut down the poles almost as fast as they were erected. For some time no explanation could be obtained, but at last the working parties discovered that in more thickly settled districts of the Celestial Empire graves were everywhere to be found, and scarcely a pole could be erected anywhere but that at some time of the day it cast its shadow on a grave. The difficulty was insuperable, and the Chinese Government, anxious as it was to render assistance, stood powerless. So all the wires went underground, and it is said the system proved perfectly efficient.

WHY DON'T YOU STOP
Coughing before the entire mucous membrane lining the air passages leading to the lungs becomes inflamed, as it surely will be from a cough neglected. There is but one remedy that gives instant relief and cures quickly. Dr. Hale's Household Cough Cure cures every kind of cough from a simple cold to incipient consumption. 25 and 50c per bottle at J. R. Lemon's.

There is no questioning the fact that the climate of this country has undergone a remarkable change in the last half century. I have noticed the change with increasing interest each year. The weather of this section is not as even and certain as it was when I was a boy. The summers are cooler and the winters are gradually growing longer. Spring and fall, as marked and distinct seasons, have almost disappeared. The only explanation I know of for this remarkable climatic revolution is the thinning out of timber, the construction of railroads, telegraph lines and other similar contrivances which have a tendency to disturb the air.

She Did Not "Look Pleasant."
A Presbyterian divine recently visited this city only to have a somewhat startling experience. While near the Union depot he thought it would be a fine thing to shoot his kodak at a Utesquaw, but when the squaw saw the kodak pointed toward her she thought she was being bewitched, and, pulling a large knife from under her apologetic dress, she made a desperate charge for the dominie. He saw what was coming and dropped the kodak in his fright and made a very undignified dive for the other side of the street. The squaw captured the witch instrument, and, after demolishing it, replaced her knife with a satisfactory grunt and marched triumphantly away.—Rocky Mountain News.

I have been suffering 10 years with Erysipelas. Have taken doctors' medicines and patent medicines of most all kinds, but none seemed to do me any good. I finally made up my mind to try Burdock Blood Bitters. Have used four bottles of B. B. B. and think myself entirely cured.

IMPROVED
FOR MEATS, FOWL, FISH, ETC., AND FOR BAKING BREAD, CAKES AND PUDDINGS.
BEST, SIMPLEST AND CHEAPEST
THE STEAM produced by the process of cooking cannot escape, is absorbed by the article in the roaster, and acts as a seasoning. There is no evaporation, no drying up or burning, hence no shrinkage or loss of weight, and all the flavor and nutritious qualities of the food are retained. Tough meats are made tender, and any article roasted or baked in the roaster, is sweeter, healthier and more digestible. Put the food in the roaster, place the roaster in a well heated oven, and the roasting will be done. It requires no attention. Can only be bought from dealers, the trade supplied by:

PASTOR KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Recommended as the Best. Dr. LE MARS, Plymouth Co., Ia., May, 1895. I suffered from temporary sleeplessness from overwork for two years, for which I used Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and can recommend same as the best medicine for similar troubles.

P. JOHNSON, ST. LOUIS.

CHANCY, Tenn., October, 1890. Owing to a runaway about a year ago, my son was thrown from a wagon and severely hurt about the head. For many days he was entirely unable to move and was in a most deplorable condition. At this time I learned of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and at once ordered a bottle. After I had given him the second dose he fell into a quiet sleep and ceased crying. The next day he was much better, and when he had used up the contents of the bottle he was entirely restored and is so still. FRED DERSEWEL.
